

SYMONDS STREET

Symonds Street is a key gateway to the Learning Quarter. Enabled by refined area-wide traffic patterns, the CCMP envisages Symonds Street as a high-quality urban environment prioritising pedestrians, cyclists, and public transport. Traffic movements are tailored to university business access needs rather than a through route for general traffic. These changes support the ongoing evolution of the area as a city campus aligned with university development plans.

